16.2. Each section will be headed by a director.

16.3. Directors shall be council appointees.

16.4. The council reserves the right to monitor the performance of directors and reserves the right to suspend or remove a director from office if the council deems it necessary.

16.5. The decision of the council shall be final. The director in question will be informed of the decision in writing and will be informed of reasons for the decision.

16.6. Directors shall have the power to appoint deputy directors to assist them or deputise for them, provided that the name of the deputy is submitted to the council for approval.

16.7. Directors shall maintain contact with members who demonstrate an interest in the work of those sections, and may institute section newsletters if considered desirable.

16.8. Directors shall prepare annual reports on the activities of the section during the previous calendar year. A summary of the report, for publication at the AGM, is also to be provided.

16.9. Both the annual report of the section and the summary thereof are to reach the secretary of the society by not later than 30 June of the year following the calendar year to which the report applies.

17. SCHOLARSHIPS

17.1. The council will appoint a scholarship convenor to co-ordinate and manage scholarship allocation and payments so as to ensure that the society meets its objectives.

17.2. Such convenor shall be a council appointee.

17.3. The council reserves the right to monitor the performance of the convenor and reserves the right to suspend or remove the convenor from office if the council deems it necessary.

17.4. The decision of the council shall be final. The convenor will be informed of the decision in writing and will be informed of reasons for the decision.

17.5. The convenor shall prepare an annual report on scholarships during the previous calendar year. A summary of the report, for publication at the AGM, is also to be provided.

17.6. Both the annual report and the summary thereof are to reach the secretary of the society by not later than 30 June of the year following the calendar year to which the report applies.

18. PUBLICATIONS

18.1. Members shall receive all electronic publications of the society free of charge.

18.2. Each centre shall annually be entitled to purchase on behalf of each centre member one copy of each of the printed publications of the society at total cost associated with each unit of such printed publication.

18.3. Members are mutatis mutandis entitled to purchase the printed publications of the society at cost (as aforesaid) from their respective centres, provided that country members shall be entitled to affect the aforesaid purchases directly from the society.

19. ACCOUNTS AND RECORDS

19.1. The council shall cause to be kept such accounts and records as are necessary to record the affairs of the society, including but not limited to journals and financial statements.

19.2. Financial statements shall be prepared from the books of account at the end of each financial year which, financial year shall run from 1 July to 30 June each year.

19.3. The financial statement shall be audited by the auditor or auditing firm appointed at the previous AGM.

19.4. Financial statements for each financial period shall be prepared and submitted for approval to the council once completed and audited.

20. ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

- 20.1. The AGM of the society shall be held at a centre chosen by the council, subject to agreement by that centre and may be attended via voice- or video conferencing where such means are available.
- 20.2. The date of the meeting shall be the first Wednesday in August or such other day as the council, after consultation with the committee of the centre at which the AGM is to be held, shall decide.
- 20.3. A notice announcing the AGM shall be sent to all members of the society at least twenty-one business days before the date of the meeting. The notice shall advise the date, the time, and the venue of the meeting.
- 20.4. Any member entitled to vote at the AGM may appoint, in writing to the secretary, a proxy to speak and vote in his stead. A proxy must be a member of the society.
- 20.5. Voting where anonymity is sought or required will be by secret written ballot provided that members attending via voice- or video conferencing will be required to either vote publicly or by proxy through a member physically attending the AGM.
- 20.6. Members may submit items for inclusion in the agenda for the AGM. The submissions must be received by the secretary by 30 June preceding the AGM.
- 20.7. Items submitted by members after 30 June, either in writing or at the AGM will only be included at the discretion of the president.
- 20.8. The purpose of the AGM shall be: -

- 20.8.1. to receive the report of the council;
- 20.8.2. to receive financial statements for the previous financial year;
- 20.8.3. to receive the summaries of the annual reports of the sections;
- 20.8.4. to elect officers and council members;
- 20.8.5. to elect an auditor or auditing firm for the ensuing year;
- 20.8.6. to take any other business at the discretion of the president.

21. SUSPENSION OR CANCELLATION OF MEMBERSHIP

21.1. The council may suspend or cancel the membership of any member for infringement of the constitution or of any rules made there under, or misconduct.

21.2. The council will only consider a complaint reported to it in writing, and such complaint must be dated and signed by the person making the complaint.

21.3. The person against whom a complaint is raised will be informed of the nature of the complaint in writing and will be afforded the opportunity to respond in writing.

21.4. Should the council, in its sole discretion, view the need for the leading of oral evidence; the council will convene a hearing.

21.5. The council will bring out a decision after receipt of submissions and / or an oral hearing decision of council shall be final.

21.6. The person against whom the complaint is raised will be informed of the decision in writing and will be informed of reasons for the decision.

21.7. There exists no right to appeal.

21.8. Any member excluded under this section shall forfeit their current annual subscription and any payments made in relation thereto.

22. AMENDMENT OF THE CONSTITUTION

22.1. The constitution of the society shall be amended only by ballot of all members or may, at the discretion of the council, be done at a special general meeting.

22.2. Proposed amendments must be forwarded to the secretary of the society.

22.3. No proposed amendment shall be considered by the society without either the recommendation of the council, or the signatures of at least five voting members.

22.4. Any proposed amendment, together with a voting paper, shall be sent to every member who has the right to vote.

22.5. To be adopted, an amendment must receive at least two thirds of the votes cast and will be carried immediately.

22.6. If, in the opinion of the council, any proposed amendment would vitally affect the welfare of the society or any fundamental principle of this constitution, the council shall make that opinion known to members. Any such opinion shall be circulated as an addendum to the notice of the proposed amendment.

23. AWARDS

23.1. The council has established certain awards, and further awards may be instituted from time to time.

23.2. The names of, and the conditions and procedures for making of, these awards are set out in Appendix II.

15. LIABILITY AND INDEMNITY

15.1. Every member, officer or servant of centre are indemnified by the centre against all costs, losses and expenses which they may incur or become liable for by reason of any act or thing done by them as such in the discharge of their duties, unless the loss in question is caused by a member's own gross negligence, dishonesty or breach of trust.

16. WINDING UP

16.1. Should fifty percent of the members of any centre via in writing petition that such centre be dissolved, the centre committee shall cause a general meeting of the centre's members to be called for the purpose of discussing their resolution and the final decision shall be made on a simple majority of members present.

16.2. The said meeting shall decide on the disposal of the assets, funds and records of the centre.

16.3. The centre shall be considered dissolved if it ceases to exist without a formal decision so to do, e.g. by failure to elect officers or by failure of all members of the centre to pay subscriptions. In this event the immediately preceding chairperson and the committee shall within one month of the dissolution of the centre, cause all assets, funds and records of the centre to be sent to the society for safekeeping or disposal as council of the society shall see fit.

APPENDIX II:

1. GILL MEDAL

- 1.1. A medal has been established, known as the Gill Medal, to be awarded in recognition of services to astronomy.
- 1.2. The medal shall be awarded not more frequently than once in any year, and no award shall be made if, in the opinion of council of the society, there is no suitable candidate in any year.
- 1.3. The award shall be made by the council.
- 1.4. There shall be no restriction on the eligibility of any person as candidate, and candidates need not be members of the society.
- 1.5. In making the award, the council shall observe the following conditions: -
 - 1.5.1. the council shall be required to state the particular service rendered by the medallist which has been deemed worthy of the award;
 - 1.5.2. the council shall, as far as may be seemly, give preference to services rendered to astronomy in Southern Africa;
 - 1.5.3. the council may, at its discretion, give special credit to services carried out under conditions of difficulty, or with limited facilities.

1.5.4. the award shall be publicly announced at the AGM of the society and if feasible the presentation of the medal to the successful candidate shall be made at that meeting or any other appropriate venue or time agreed to by Council.

1.6. Procedure for election of Gill Medallist: -

1.6.1. in each year before 31 March, members of the council of the society shall send to the secretary of the society a note of a name or names of suitable candidates to receive the medal, together with a description of the services to astronomy which it is proposed to recognise, and a note of any further particular reasons in favour of any particular candidate;

1.6.2. before 15 April the secretary shall prepare and distribute to each council member a confidential memorandum embodying all the proposals and reasons;

1.6.3. at a council meeting to be held in May, one name, or in the case of joint work, two or more names, shall be selected, or the council may decide that no suitable name has been proposed;

1.6.4. the council may not add names to those originally proposed, but it may redraft the citation of the services for which it is proposed to award the medal;

1.6.5. if a name or joint names has been selected, this name, together with the citation, and any further particular reasons, shall be incorporated in a ballot paper, a copy of which shall be sent to each council member;

- 1.6.6. council members shall then vote for or against the award of the medal to the person or persons named in the paper, for the service cited;
- 1.6.7. ballot papers must reach the secretary by the end of the first week in June;
- 1.6.8. two-thirds of all the voted cast shall be necessary to confirm the award;
- 1.6.9. if a council member be proposed as a candidate he or she shall withdraw from the discussion and voting;
- 1.6.10. all the proceedings leading up to the award of the medal shall be kept confidential by the council members;
- 1.6.11. candidacy may be discussed among council members, but it is not to be a matter of public debate, and council members representing centres of the society are not bound to accept instruction from those centres in this matter;
- 1.6.12. the details of discussion in the council shall not be minuted, nor the names of candidates specified;
- 1.6.13. the minutes shall record the fact that candidates were discussed and a name selected, if this is done.

2. MCINTYRE AWARD

- 2.1. The council of the society resolved to establish a prize to be known as the McIntyre Award derived from the interest on the bequest made to the society by the late Donald G. McIntyre of Cape Town, sometime president of the society.
- 2.2. Awards shall be made from time to time as council shall decide, and shall be normally of a monetary value of not less than two hundred South African Rand.
- 2.3. Awards shall be made, without distinction of nationality or language, to any person in respect of work of good academic standard.
- 2.4. The council shall take into account features of originality and of literary presentation.
- 2.5. The council shall normally appoint suitably qualified referees to report on work under consideration for an award.
- 2.6. Procedure for making an award: -
- 2.6.1. nominations substantiated by written reasons, in respect of a work to be published or which has been published in book form or in a journal of recognised standing within the previous five years, may be made to the secretary by any council member;

- 2.6.2. when a nomination has been made it shall be incorporated in the Council meeting minutes;
- 2.6.3. after a suitable period of discussion of not less than one month and not more than three months, the council shall vote on the proposed award, giving notice in the agenda for the relevant council meeting, that such a vote is to be taken;
- 2.6.4. two-thirds of all the votes cast shall be necessary to confirm the award;
- 2.6.5. council members shall vote in their personal capacity and shall not seek guidance from centres which they may represent;
- 2.6.6. council members shall vote as instructed by their principals, but if no instructions have been received, an council member may vote in his personal capacity;
- 2.6.7. no council member shall have more than one vote;
- 2.6.8. when an award has been made the council shall announce it in a suitable manner and shall make suitable arrangements for its presentation;
- 2.6.9. details of awards shall be included in the annual financial statement by the treasurer, which is incorporated in the annual report of council.

3. LONG SERVICE AWARD

- 3.1. In recognition of long service to the society or a centre of the society, the council decided to institute an award to be known as the long service award.
- 3.2. The award shall take the form of a book, suitably inscribed, to a value as decided by the council from time to time.
- 3.3. Nominations for the long service award, which must include details of the service(s) rendered over the period, must reach the secretary by 31 March each year and may be submitted by: -
 - 3.3.1. any council member or past president of the society provided he or she is still a member of the society; and
 - 3.3.2. any centre of the society;
- 3.4. The council shall consider the nominations and in its sole discretion decide whether or not an award shall be made, subject to the following conditions: -
 - 3.4.1. recognition shall be based on not less than twenty years of invaluable service to the society or a centre thereof (or a combination of both), which need not necessarily include serving on the council;
 - 3.4.2. not more than one award shall be made in any one year;
 - 3.4.3. if possible, presentation of an award shall be made at the next AGM of the society.
