Pannoch & Howe & The Secretary,

Mr Rogers welcomed Mr Harley &
Dr Fehr

The minutes of the previous meeting were taken as read & were signed by the Chairman.

During the minutes, the Chairman said that the amendments to the constitution of the Society had as yet, not been dealt with by Council.

Mr Rogers then reviewed the background of Grazing Occultation & said there were, probably, 5 main requirements - People, Instruments, Transport, Timing & Position.

Considerable discussion followed & finally a sub-committee consisting of Mr Greenwood, Mr Baddeley, Mr Harley &
Dr Fehr was elected.

Mr Greenwood suggested that the Americans be requested to pick an easy occultation for us, as a centre, to try & find out whether a net was
